Arbitration

A submission from the AUT

Purpose or Objective

Create the possibility for an Arbitration process

Proposal

A competitor can be part of any protest committee or arbitration panel as long as there is no clear conflict of interest and as long as there is no reasonable objection brought forward.

Different procedures are possibly

IFCA should make it possible that MNA develop and test such processes in 2023

A summary and evaluation is welcome

Depending on the response a workgroup should be created

Reasons

1. Currently there are by far not enough competent judges around to handle protests on the level of national tours an small to medium national championships
 2. Involving riders creates ressources, deepens the understanding of rules amongst the riders and increases fair racing
